PAYMENTS ON DEATH

In the event of your death, we would pay any death benefit as a lump sum and/or as income, subject to prevailing pension rules and the Terms and conditions of your pension plan. We will choose the beneficiary(ies) (from all potential beneficiaries) at our absolute discretion. However, if you complete an Expression of Wish form, we will take into account your wishes. Details of the options applicable to any beneficiary are provided below.

LUMP SUM PAYMENTS

If you die before your 75th birthday, any lump sum payment would be paid free of UK tax.[#] However, any beneficiary would be liable to a lifetime allowance tax charge in respect of any value in excess of your remaining lifetime allowance.

If you die on, or after, your 75th birthday, any lump sum payment would be subject to the following UK tax treatment:

Type of beneficiary	UK tax rate(s)
UK individual beneficiary	The individual's marginal income tax rate(s)
A UK charity	No tax charge [#]
Any other UK beneficiary (such as a discretionary trust)	45% tax charge

If a lump sum is paid into a discretionary trust and then paid to a UK individual potential beneficiary of that trust as income, that beneficiary would be given a tax credit for the 45% tax charge previously paid and, depending on their UK tax position, they may be able to reclaim some, or all, of this amount from HM Revenue & Customs.

INCOME PAYMENTS

Instead of, or as well as, a lump sum payment, a beneficiary may use the remaining fund to provide an income payable by the purchase of a lifetime annuity or drawdown pension.

- if you die after purchasing a lifetime annuity, the terms of that annuity will determine what if any, death benefit will be payable (including the possible continuation of the regular payments to a beneficiary).
- if you have not taken any benefits when you die, or you were taking drawdown pension benefits when you died, income benefits may be paid to your dependant(s)^{} or nominee(s)^{}. This can be in the form of a lifetime annuity and/or drawdown pension.
- if you die before your 75th birthday, any income payment to a UK individual would be paid free of UK tax.^{*} However, any beneficiary would be liable to a lifetime allowance tax charge in respect of any value in excess of your remaining lifetime allowance.
- if you die on, or after, your 75th birthday, any income payment to a UK individual would be subject to the beneficiary's marginal income tax rate(s).

NOTES:

^{*} For uncrystallised funds, this is subject to payment being made within two years of the scheme administrator being notified of the death.

^{} A dependant, when you die, would be:

- your surviving spouse/civil partner; or
- your surviving child under the age of 23 (or over the age of 23 if, in our opinion, they were dependent on you because of their physical or mental impairment); or
- anyone else who, in our opinion, was financially dependent on you, financially inter-dependent with you, or who was dependent on you because of physical or mental impairment

^{} A nominee, when you die, would be any individual, other than a dependant, who you nominate to receive an income.

[#] Payments to UK charities will be tax-free if you leave no surviving dependant at the point of your death. If any charity payments were made whilst there was a surviving dependant these would be seen as unauthorised payments and taxed as such.
